

Profile

State Senator Wayne Langerholc Jr.

35TH DISTRICT

Bedford, Cambria and Clearfield Counties

A lifelong resident of Cambria County, Wayne Langerholc, Jr. was elected to the Pennsylvania Senate in November 2016.

Wayne dedicated his career to protecting families and seeking justice for innocent victims of crime as a Cambria County Assistant District Attorney. He also worked to protect local taxpayers while serving as a Richland Township supervisor. As a lifelong resident of Richland Township in the heart of the 35th Senatorial District, Wayne understands the opportunities and challenges faced by the region and the Commonwealth, and has fought for jobs, government reform and public safety.

As an Assistant District Attorney, Wayne served as the lead prosecutor for the Cambria County Drug Task Force, where he maintained an unblemished 100% felony trial conviction record while working to keep our families and children safe. He earned a reputation as being tough on violent offenders, compassionate toward crime victims, and dedicated to teaching our children the dangers of drugs and alcohol. His legislative priority remains fighting crime and curbing the heroin and opioid drug epidemic.

A proven fiscal conservative, Wayne is a graduate of Richland High School, Juniata College, and Widener School of Law. He and his wife, Cortney have three daughters.

The 35th District includes all of Cambria County, Bedford County and parts of Clearfield County.

Senate Box 203035
Harrisburg, PA 17120-3035
(717) 787-5400

125 E. Market Street
Clearfield, PA 16830
(814) 765-0555
FAX: (814) 765-0558

107 S. Richard Street
Bedford, PA 15522
(814) 623-5004
FAX: (814) 623-5044